

VALLEY REAL LIFE

Experiencing God | God Invites

Last Week

Did anyone slow down and feel God's pursuit in their lives last week?

Opener

Have you ever experienced imposter syndrome? Being offered something or life put you into something you didn't feel ready or qualified for?

Questions

Has there ever been a moment where you felt called by the Holy Spirit to do something, but you found yourself arguing or resisting? After the moment passed, how did you feel about it?

What can we do or how can we put ourselves into a position where we feel more comfortable to answer God's invitation when called?

Can you share a story where you felt called by God to do something and you took a leap of faith and moved forward with it? How did you feel about your relationship with God afterwards?

Why do you think we resist God's invitation when we have no doubt it's Him calling us?

Apply SOAP (Scripture, Observation, Application, Prayer) to:

1 Corinthians 1:26-29 (NIV)

Brothers and sisters, think of what you were when you were called. Not many of you were wise by human standards; not many were influential; not many were of noble birth. But God chose the foolish things of the world to shame the wise; God chose the weak things of the world to shame the strong. God chose the lowly things of this world and the despised things—and the things that are not—to nullify the things that are, so that no one may boast before him.
